For Every

ACTION . . .

. . . There is

REACTION

An I.D. Bracelet changes hands and a figure, tall broadshouldered strides quickly down the hall. Then comes the sound of sobbing only half-muffled by small, finely-shaped hands. The huddle breaks; the teams get ready for the play. Suddenly a weaving, dodging, twisting figure hurtles into the clear, running all out under the bright lights. He crosses a white line, content now to drop his precious prize. The crowd roars. TOUCH-DOWN!! Because it is not only a law of physics, but also a law of life, this year's Growl Staff has chosen as its theme Newton's Law

For every ACTION
There is . . . REACTION.

TOUCHDOWN! The crowd roars! All sports are filled with action and reaction, probably more obviously than any other phase of school life. Not only the players, but also the crowd and cheerleaders have shown enthusiasm, tears, and other emotions throughout the year.

A bright flash ... a click of the shutter ... a picture has been taken. An action has been captured; the reaction will be released when you look at these pictures.

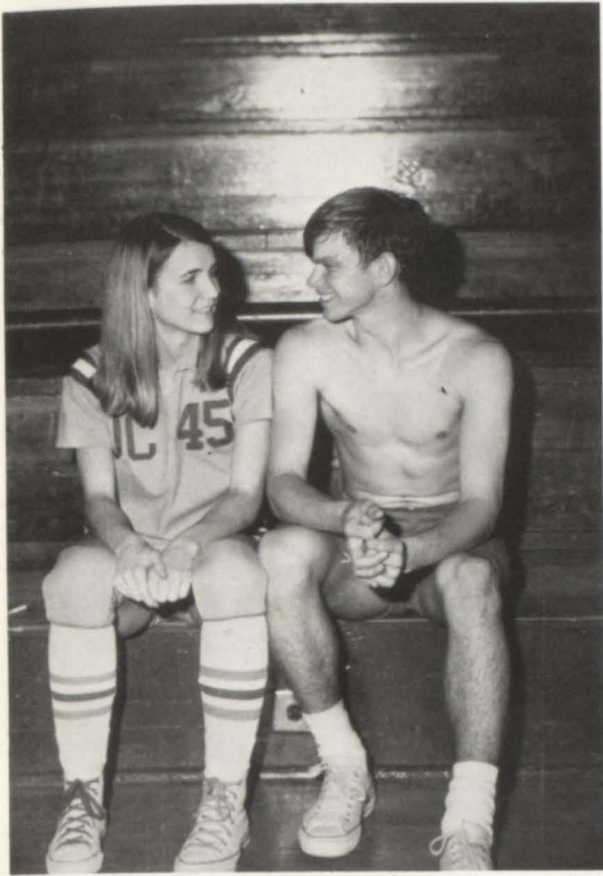

DO
YOU REMEMBER?

Surprise, Mrs. Pulliam!

Andy, Ann, Julie, and Penny pose for a picture
on the Capitol steps.
Guess when!

No football game, basketball game, or pep rally would be complete without our Alma Mater. Likewise this yearbook would be lacking an important element without it.

ALMA MATER

On the city's western border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
As the years go by.

Forward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail,
Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
J. C. H. S. , all hail.

Students, students, students, running to and fro like so many ants. Students sitting in classrooms, running to lunch, talking, fighting, laughing, always on the go. Wherever they are, whatever they're doing, the students make their school. From the youngest freshest seventh grader to the oldest most somber senior, the students represent their school ... they are the school. Without the students the school has no purpose, no being; it is just an empty shell with no feeling. Then the students come and the school is alive with joys, sorrows, laughter, and tears. Because the yearbook is a pictorial history of the school year, the Yearbook staff is proud to dedicate the 1970 Growl to you ... the Student Body of Jones County High School ... the Greyhounds.

MONTICELLO

Jones County's Greyhounds opened the season at home and on a winning note by beating out the Hurricanes of Monticello 24-14 as both Floyd Comer and Dean Faulkner crossed the goal line twice.

EAST LAURENS

The Greyhounds next took on the Rams of East Laurens and pulled off their first real upset by solidly beating their opponents 39-14. Again Floyd Comer crossed the goal line twice while Faulkner and Ronnie Womack both crossed once. Womack added a 1- and 2 point conversion.

MACON COUNTY

The Greyhounds next journeyed to Macon County for a try at the Rebels. But the men of Macon proved to be up to the task of stopping our team's winning ways as the hounds fell 18 to 13. Dean Faulkner and Ronnie Womack each scored once and Womack kicked a P. A. T. to round out the scoring for the Hounds.

HAWKINSVILLE

The Hounds next played host to the Red Devils and fell 13 to 0 before their "HOT" offense.

WILKINSON CO.

The next week our hounds paid a visit to the Warriors of Wilkinson County. The hounds got scalped 38 to 6. The only score for the Hounds came on a pass from Floyd Comer to Ray Lyles.

G. M. C.

The G. M. C. Bulldogs came up from Baldwin County to avenge their loss of a year ago and went back with a 6 to 0 victory over the Hounds.

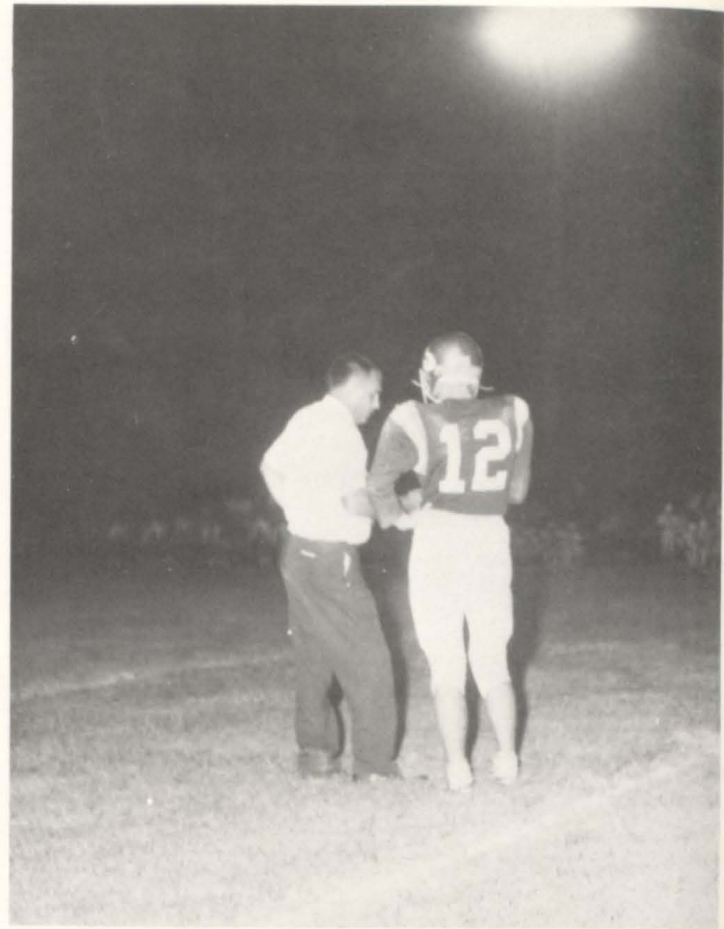

COCHRAN

The team next journeyed to Cochran and furious over their train of losses, unseated the Royals 14-0. Both Dean Faulkner and Floyd Comer crossed the goal line once while Womack kicked both PAT'S.

PUTNAM

The Hounds then went to Putnam County for a try at the Blue Devils. In a cold, wet, game the Hounds made things "HOT" for the Blue Devils. Stunning them 24 to 22, Floyd Comer lugged the Pigskin over for two TD's and three PAT's, and passed to Ray Lyles for another.

FT. VALLEY

Homecoming night brought Fort Valley and another victory to the hounds as they pulled the biggest upset of the season, stunning the Wave 14 to 8 as Womack and Charles Lane scored one a piece and Womack kicked the PAT'S.

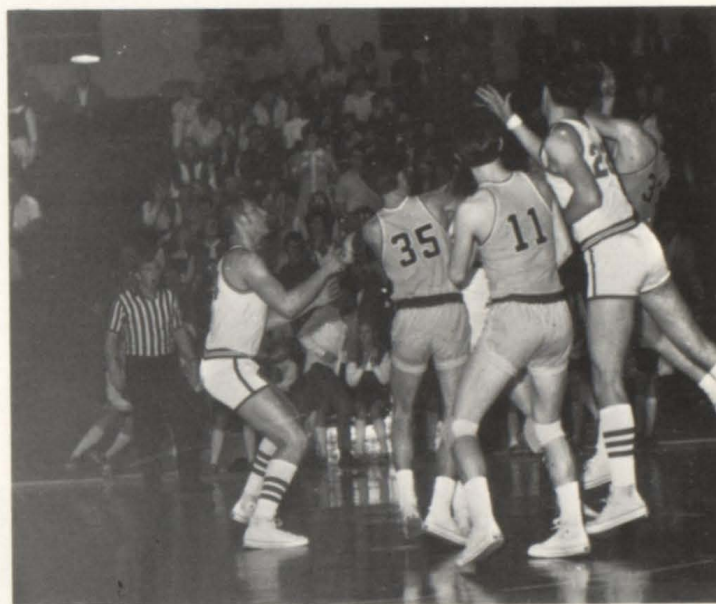

JOHNSON COUNTY

Following their victory over the Fort Valley Waves, Jones County's Greyhounds journeyed to Johnson County to battle the Tigers. But the Tigers turned to "Housecats" as they were romped by the Hounds 44 to 20. Touchdowns came from Floyd Comer, who had two and a two point conversion. Charles Lane who had one, Dean Faulkner, Ray Lyles, and Lonnie Harris, each of which had one. Womack racked up four points on PAT's and Faulkner, two on PAT's.

It was a great season! The victories were thrilling, but sometimes the scoreboard indicated heartbreaking losses. The team members learned how to accept a loss with dignity just as they accepted a win with humbleness. The season was a success, and much was gained by all.

All the seniors agree, "We're sure gonna miss it ..."

"Don't run away Martin, HELP ME!"

That's a NO-NO,
Goolsby.

No need to rebound Annie's ball!

CLASS PROPHECY 1970

The members of the 1970 graduating class at JCHS are beginning to arrive now. It doesn't seem like 15 years since they walked down the fateful aisle at JCHS. We are deeply grateful to David Moore, tycoon playboy of the year, for letting us use his mansion here in Beverly Hills for our reunion. David started his fortune as janitor of Davison's in Macon, Georgia, under the direction of Aubrey Gore who is presently General Manager of Davison's nationwide. Vicki Kicklighter, David's private secretary, stands ready for dictation.

Over to the left around the fountain, we see the president of Kool-Aid Incorporated, Murray Smith. With him is his V. President in charge of distribution - Donald Evans. Walking toward them is nationally known beach bum, Sue Thompson. She has just returned from Panama City, Florida, her summer home.

Out by the pool, I see the show people gathering to share their autographs. Debra Folendore, dairy queen of 1985 is busy passing out autographs. Louise Hayslip accompanied by Bubba Jackson has been the hit of the country western concert at the old Macon Coliseum. Ronnie Nichols, star of the new TV series, Super Noodles, gives his autograph to Andy Melvin who is presently secretary at JCHS. Dale Foster and Steve Carter, the new Dale Evans and Roy Rogers of Hollywood, left Silver outside. Silver is the name of their 1985 Vette Stingray. Linda Sue Foskey is known on international TV for her famous Russian commercial. She asks, "Do Reds have more fun?" Her hairstylist is the world renowned Mary Jo Gatliff. Nancy Greene, lead singer of the red hot singing group - The Purple People Eaters has just given her autograph to her old school chum, Anne Hamrick. Anne Hamrick has just signed a contract with the Pittsburg Powder Puffs as quarterback. Penny Wade stands near them. She has made a great come-back with her version of "Mustang Sally."

One important celebrity is not chatting with this group. It is romantic singer, Robert Lovelady. He has just announced that he plans to run for governor of Georgia. He is talking with Jimmy Horton, star of Horton's Hornets Basketball team. Tommy Myers, now under contract with the Atlanta Braves, shares his exciting victories with Jimmy.

Just arriving outside is Julie Henderson, famous and rich concert pianist. She is being chauffeured in the latest of her collection of GTO's. It was designed by Johnny Maddox, President of Nationwide Pontiac. As she enters, she chats with her old school chum, Ruthie Golson who is presently dean of men at Auburn University.

Debra Craine enters in one of her own creations. She is employed by one of the most exclusive fashion lines in London now owned by Marilyn Kitchens. Marilyn holds the title of Miss World 1985. She is talking with Shirlene Batchlor and Kay Touchton who have just concluded their newest chain of petite clothing stores.

Margie Harrison, bridal consultant at Riches of Atlanta, is seen discussing the latest fashions with Debra Maynard, owner of the world's largest chain of dry goods and general stores. Donna Donaldson, President of the Beatle's Fan Club, is being interviewed by Gaye Phillips, the editor of the Women's section of Vogue Magazine. Next, Gaye will interview Gail Miller who placed first in the Olympics for speed in typing and shorthand.

Tommy Todd, President of Volkswagen International, has just arrived in his 1985 VW. Since he had such respect for law enforcement in his youth, he is a part-time Georgia State Trooper. He is seen talking to the first woman pope, Dianne Martin.

Gabe Taylor, owner of the largest gambling casino in Las Vegas, has just arrived in his tuxedo. He seems to be making his way through the crowd to Jon Sellers. From what I've heard, Jon is the leading hustler at Gabe's casino. Wanda Manning has cornered Jon. She is the head of the Women's Temperance League against profanity.

David Comer, mayor of Warner Robins, talks over the affairs of big cities with the mayor of Haddock, Johnny Avery. Johnny is very proud indeed of Haddock's new medical center. Head nurses there are Wanda Bentley and Connie Johnson.

George Mason has just inherited a large grant of land now known as The Mason Plantation. This is the ideal test track for farm machinery. Ronald Evans, owner of Evans Tractor International has rented an area of four miles for testing his tractors. America's leading test driver of tractors, Denny Greene, is seen talking to an insurance woman, Penny Broach.

Pam Roberts, Metropolitan Opera star, is seen talking to Kibby Greene. Since Kibby's flop on Broadway in the Sound of Silence, she has taken over Dear Abby's Counseling Columns.

Carol Foster, head cheerleader at Georgia Tech, has just left. She couldn't stay but for a minute. She had to catch a plane to Texas where she is head of a National Cheerleading Clinic to be held in Dallas this week. Before she left she had a chance to talk to her old school friend, Carol Ann Kitchens. She is at present the nurse for Comer's Plumbing Company. Alvin Andrews is a part time plumber there but is better known for his racing of 6-cylinders.

Sherry McCant, home economics teacher at JCHS, enters with Tony Miller who is FFA advisor there. Carolyn Fountain, national Senior President of FHA is talking with Deana Gaultney. Deana gave up her elaborate career in FHA to become co-owners of Nobles Kennels, owned and operated by Steve Nobles. They specialize in raising Greyhounds.

Alton Chambless and John Ross are in the den to our left where they are Indian wrestling. This is only a small spirit of competition because the next week they will box for the heavy-weight championship of the world. Referee for this match will be Fred Bilderback. Standing nearby is Gene Brewer. He is famous around the world for his success in carpeting the White House with psychedelic rugs.

Stanley Holmes now owns a very exclusive men's shop in New York - Stanley Manly Fashions. With him is Calvin Simmons who made his fortune in the manufacture of mirrored sunglasses.

Two famous livestock specialists are sharing methods of raising. Sharon Wincey owns Wincey Stables, and Clara Comer owns Comer Deer Ranch. They are talking with Delores Altman, Vice President in charge of her husband's oil stations with its headquarters in Savannah, Georgia.

Kathy Borah just flew in from Washington DC where she teaches speed reading in the White House. She and an old classmate Ronald Cauley were aboard the same flight. Ronald, now director of the FBI, flew in for the reunion too. Kathy Mock, head stewardess of Pan American Airlines gave them an extra special trip since she was a 1970 graduate of JCHS, too.

Rhonda Barnes has just been seated in the parlor. She is the author of the new best-seller "How to Get Your Man and Keep Him." With her is her co-author and sister-in-law, Joyce Fulford. Talking with them is Quenton Bragg who has taken time away from his busy golf tour to be here today. Incidentally, Quenton just won the Master's Golf Tournament of 1985.

Jim Carpenter, President of Brillo Pads Inc., discusses business with Ponder Childs, now owner of the Purina Chow Mills and Ed Gochenour owners of Gochenour Groceries.

As we move toward the dining room, we see Linda Griffin talking to Bea Rozier. Linda is master of ceremonies of the Hi-Q program on TV. Bea sponsors the show with her honey from the Famous Bea Honey Farms.

Now in the dining room we see the place of honor at the head of the table has been reserved for Ronnie Holloway, United States Champion Pie Eater. But wait a moment, a helper has just informed me that Karen Conn, head chef of the kitchen, has burned our Bettye Crocker supper. So it will be delayed quite a bit. So until next reunion remember:

"NONE SO HEAVENLY AS THE CLASS OF 1970"

Life! We've been long together,
Through pleasant and through cloudy weather.

'Tis hard to part when friends are dear —
Perhaps 'twill cost a sigh, a tear;

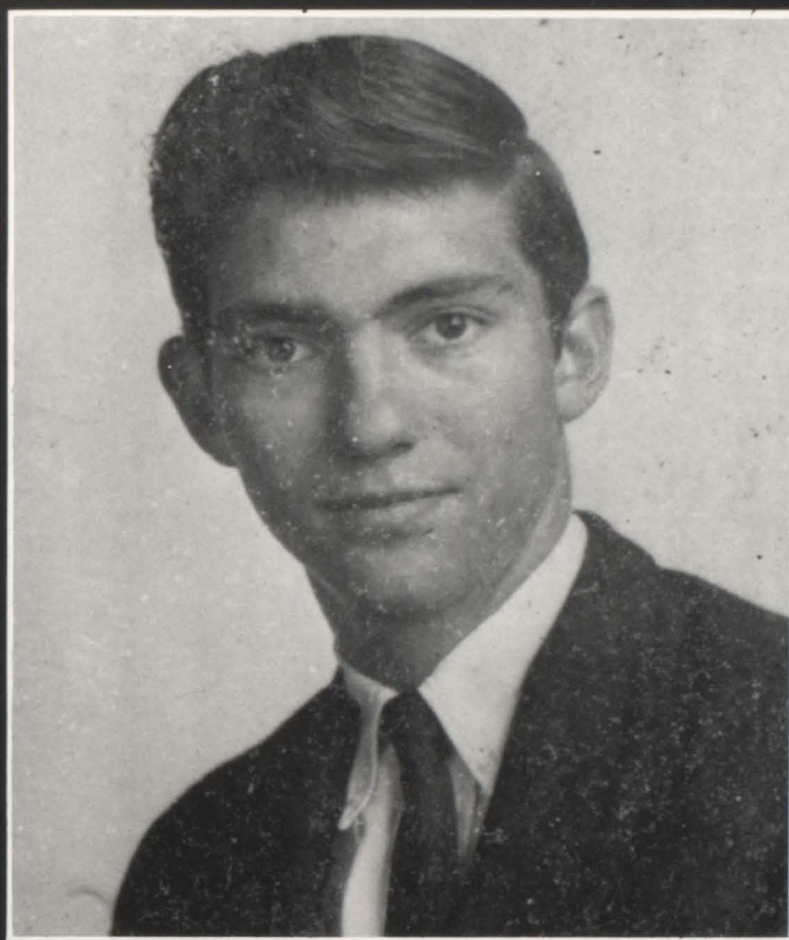

Then steal away, give little warning,
Choose thine own time

Say not Good Night, — but in some brighter clime

Bid me Good Morning

Anna Letitia Barbauld
